

Maps of Historical Event/Analysis

Historical analysis is the process by which we describe, analyze, evaluate, and create an explanation of past events. These events are placed on a map and to be a representation of fundamental historical problems and/or illustrations of historical events, developments, and dynamics.

CATEGORY	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
LOCATION	The map of where the event happened is unclear. At least 3-5 important landmarks and/or the absolute location are not present.	Identifies the theme of location by drawing a map of where the event happened, following mapping guidelines. At least 3-5 important landmarks as well as the absolute location are unclearly noted.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of location by drawing a map of where the event happened, following mapping guidelines. At least 3-5 important landmarks are clearly labeled as well as the absolute location.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of location by drawing a precise map of where the event happened, following mapping guidelines. At least 3-5 important landmarks are clearly labeled as well as the absolute location. The map is logically added to.
PLACE/EVENT	Does not identify and explain the theme of place/Event correctly.	Identifies and explains the theme of place/Event by describing the physical and/or human characteristics of the place and how it's different, in simple terms.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of place/Event by describing the physical and human characteristics of the place and how it's different.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of place/Event by describing the physical and human characteristics of the place and how it's different. Explanation gives a vivid mental map of the place.
Impact on Blacks	Does not identify or explain the event by describing how African Americans were effect on each other with regards to the event	Identifies and explains the event by describing how African Americans were effect on each other with regards to the event not much detail	Understands identifies and explains the event by describing how African Americans were effect on each other with regards to the event	Clearly identifies and insightfully explains the Event by describing how African Americans were effect on each other with regards to the event
REGION	Does not identify or explain the theme of region correctly.	Identifies and explains the theme of region by describing how this area or people form a unique region. A few regions are discussed.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of region by describing how this area or people form a unique region. Several regions are discussed.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of region by describing how this area or people form a unique region. Several regions and boundaries are discussed.
MOVEMENT	Does not identify and explain the theme of movement correctly.	Identifies and explains the theme of movement by describing why and how some people, animals, products and ideas interact with people from other areas of the world.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of movement by describing why and how people, animals, products and ideas interact with people from other areas of the world.	Clearly identifies and explains the theme of movement by describing, in a number of ways, why and how people, animals, products and ideas interact with people from other areas of the world.

